FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

Second Session.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 7.—In the Senate the free coinage measure was again considered. Senators Shoup and Mc-Connell, of Idaho, drew lots for the terms of service, the former securing the long term. In the House a bill was introduced from fifty to seventy-five million of army officers, who may be called to military colleges. The shipping bill was further discussed.

THURSDAY, JAN. 8.—Bills were passed in the Senate for public buildings at Dayton, Ill., and Akron, O., and the finance measure was further considered. In the House the time was consumed in discussing the shipping bill. The bill authorizing the certificates of service to telegraph operators with the Union army in the late war was passed.

FRIDAY, JAN. 9.—In the Senate a bill was passed for the relief of Major Wham, army paymaster, crediting him with $25,000 in arrears of pay of which he was robbed in Arizona in 1880, and House bill to provide for an additional Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona. The finance measure was again discussed, and the bill creating the office of Fourth Associateship was reported. The Postmaster-General was reported favorably. In the House the time was occupied in committee of the whole on the private calendar. At the evening session sixty private pension bills were passed.

SATURDAY, JAN. 10.—The Vice-president laid before the Senate resolutions of the G. A. R. recommending certain legislation in regard to civil employment for honorably discharged soldiers and tendering thanks for the liberal pension laws. Bills were passed to amend the railroad land forfeiture act and to amend the act relating to a public building at Rockford, Ill. The pension appropriation bill was reported and the report on the bill to carry out the act to divide the Sioux reservation was reported. Debate on the financial bill was continued. In the House the army appropriation bill was debated at length without action, and the legislative appropriation bill was reported. Debates on the late Representative Walker, of Missouri, were delivered.

FROM WASHINGTON.

On the 7th the international monetary conference convened in Washington and a cordial address of welcome to the delegates was made by Secretary Blaine.

A bill introduced by the House for the relief of the total Indian population of the United States to be 214,094.

This makes the total population of the country, including Alaska, estimated at 3,000,000, almost 600,000 more than the census of 1880. The population of the United States during the seven days ended on the 29th numbered 43, against the preceding week and 224 the corresponding week last year.

The exchanges at the leading clearing-houses in the United States during the week ended on the 10th aggregated $1,183,434,909, against $992,724,495 the preceding week. As compared with the corresponding week of 1890 the decrease amounted to 15.

ESTIMATES of the products of corn, wheat and oats of 1890, as completed by the statisticians of the Department of Agriculture, are as follows: Corn, 1,000,000, 920,000 bushels; wheat, 200,000,000 bushels; oats, 523,021,000 bushels.

THE EAST.

At Bayonne, N. J., tenements occupying about 1,000 persons, homeless.

The victims lost all their effects in the fire. The fire was caused by a gas explosion in the basement of one of the houses.

HIRSH A. TUTTLE (Rep.) was elected

Governor over Ames (Dem.) by a vote of 185 to 129 at the joint convention of the houses of the New Hampshire Legislature.

A SCANDAL fell at the new edition of the St. John's Lutheran Church at Lancaster, Pa., causing the death of four men.

GEORGE RUSSELL, of Massachusetts, sets, in his inaugural address, advocated an amendment to the constitution of the State annulling so much of it as requires the payment of a tax, as a qualification for voting.

Five nearly destroyed villages of Springfield center, N. Y.

On the 5th Hiram A. Tuttle was inaugurated as Governor of New Hampshire, and in his inaugural address he said the best statistics at command showed that there had been less in the State by summer tourists during the past year more than $300,000, and a large portion of this has been left with the families.

FRANK M. GOSLEY, of Cabotville, N.

Y., a leading member of the Steuben Company, failed with assets of $500,000 and liabilities of $250,000.

While insane F. Y. Hynes, a farmer

24 years of age living near Mexico, Mo., cut his young wife's throat and then killed himself.

In Chicago one man lost his life and three others were fatally injured by an Illinois Central train at a crossing.

The Rosebud, Standing Rock, Pine

Ridge, Cheyenne River and Tongue

River Indian reservations have been temporarily placed under military control and General Miles has been given full authority to act.

At Cordele, Ga., Mrs. Peters and her daughter were robbed and burned to death.

FRANK CHATHAM and John Morris two well-known ranchmen of Carbonate, Colo., met in Leadville and resolved an old quarrel, and both were fatally shot.

MISSOURI STATE NEWS.

A Notable Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Fanning gave an elegant reception from 3 to 6 p. m. at the New House, Jefferson City, the other day. Mrs. Fanning was assisted by Mrs. David R. Francis, Miss Win-low, Mrs. John M. Wood and Mrs. Lon

W. Stephens. The guests included the State officers and their wives, all of the prominent people of the city and many of the Senators and Representatives.

The parlors were crowded, and it was one of the most notable pleasant affairs of the social season.

A New Military Company.

A new military company of the Missouri State Guards was mustered into service at Nevada the other evening by Colonel Caffee of the Third Regiment.

The muster roll contains fifty-three names, and the company will be known as Company H, Second Regiment, Missouri Guards, commanded by Captain

H. Mitchell. A. Diehr, First Lieutenant, and E. A. Ewing, Second Lieutenant.

Found Dead in a Loft.

Frank H. Campbell, a shoe-dealer, was found dead in the loft of his barn at St. Joseph. He attended a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last night and returned home. He was found dead in his loft. The cause of death was not ascertained, but it was decided that death was caused by apoplexy.

St. Louis Merchants' Exchange.

The annual report of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange shows that the revenue from all sources was $68,900, and the expenses $60,641. The number of members on the rolls at the opening of the year was 3,190. This has been reduced by the redemption of the certificates of twelve deceased members and by sixty-two forfeitures to 3,116.

Attacked by a Horse.

At Independence the other night, while Kate Pickles, a well-known Missouri Pacific railroad engineer, was walking through his barnyard, he was attacked by his horse, which kicked him on the head, fracturing his skull. Very little hope was entertained for his recovery.

A Careless Hunter.

James Johnston, of St. Joseph, went hunting and used the butt of his gun to fracture a rabbit out of its hole. In drawing the gun out of the hole the
